Team Member Engagement Toolkit

About this toolkit

Hey Leader!

We know you're passionate about your people - and we know that engaging your team is not a solo effort. The Team Member Engagement Tool Kit was inspired by your ideas and feedback, and brought to life by your Human Resources and Marketing team to empower you!

We hope you find these resources useful as you start, grow, and develop relationships with your team. These tools will support your efforts to foster connection and support retention. We encourage you to use these tools to enhance your inclusive efforts; making each and every team member recognize what makes them different; bringing value to our programs and the communities we serve.

As you navigate these tools, you'll find helpful tips and suggestions on how to use them to maximize your efforts. To access the resources, click the image to explore and bring to life!
